Marketing Strategy

1: Turn potential domestic potential users into customers.

2: Optimize our ads to make users more likely to search multiple times, and improve the quality of our ads to resonate with more users, thereby building stronger connections with customers and increasing customer loyalty.

3: Our main competitors are Petbarn and Petstock, so we can study their strategies and learn from their advantages.

03

Action Plan

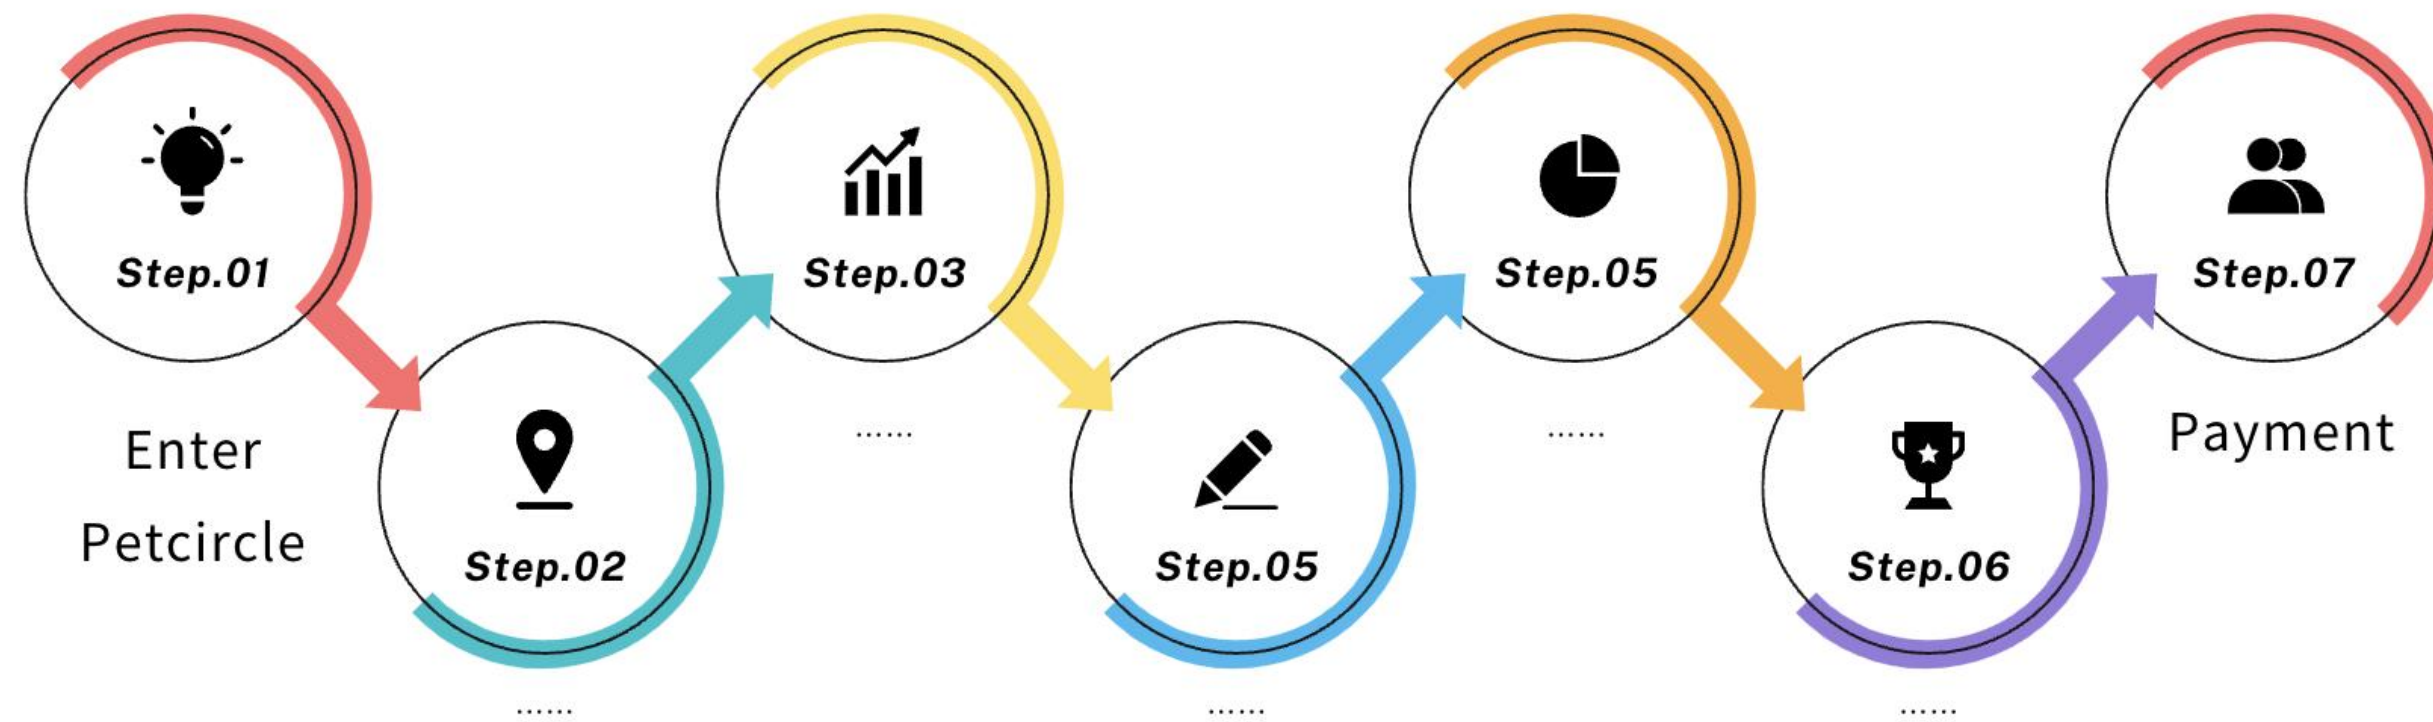

1: Turn potential domestic potential users into customers.

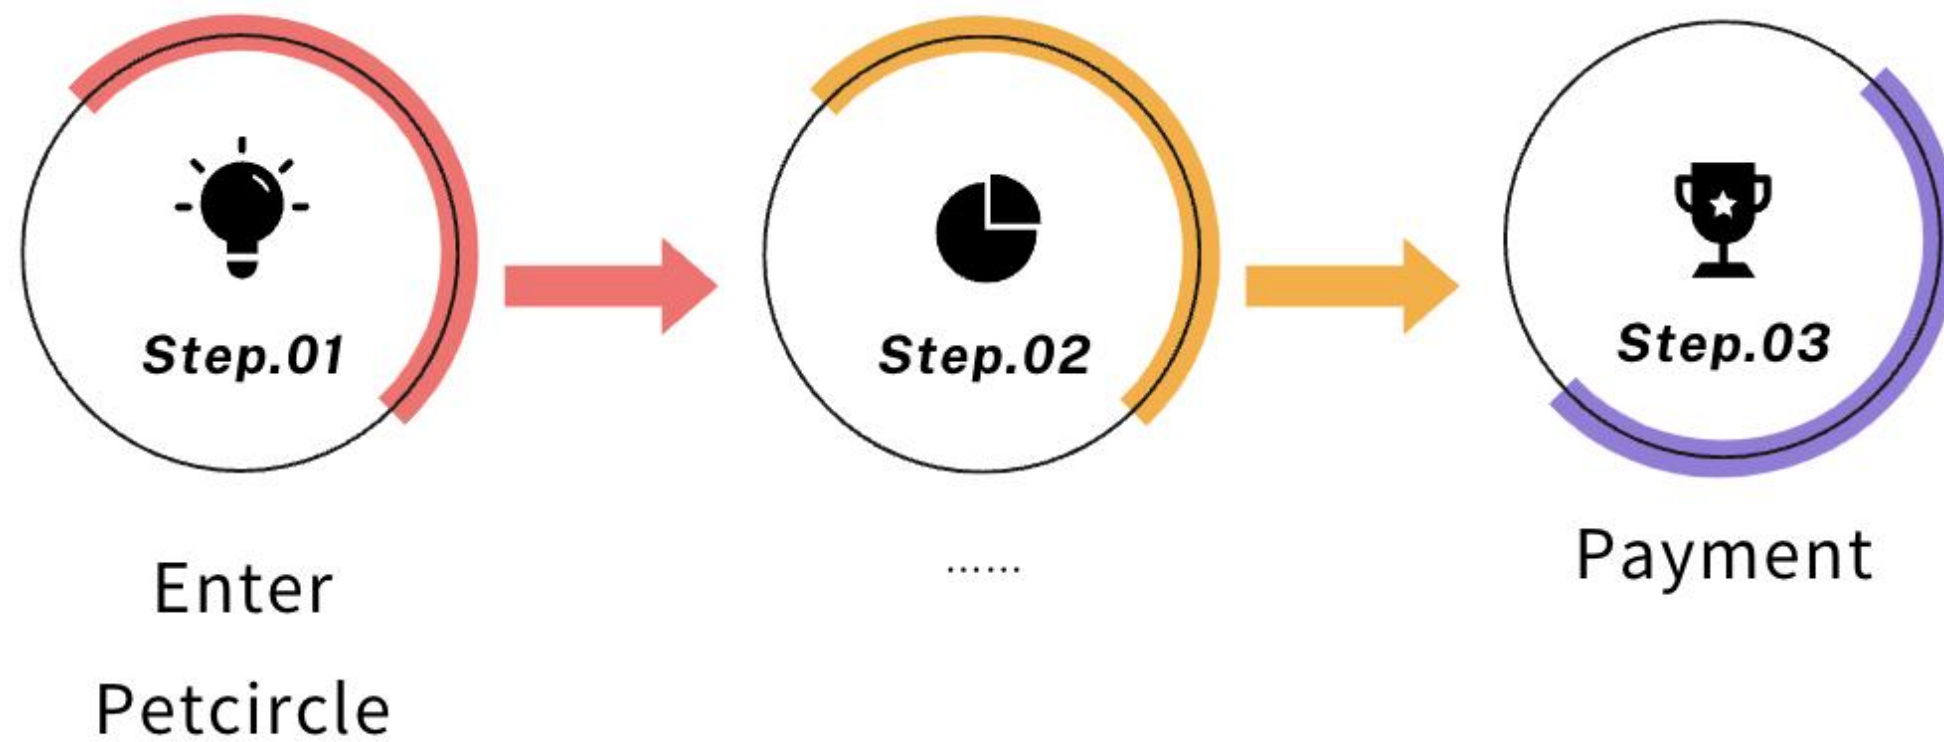

1.1 Simplify Purchasing

Reduce the number of steps in the purchase process so that customers can pay quickly and avoid losing customers due to violations of the process.

Before

After

1: Turn potential domestic potential users into customers.

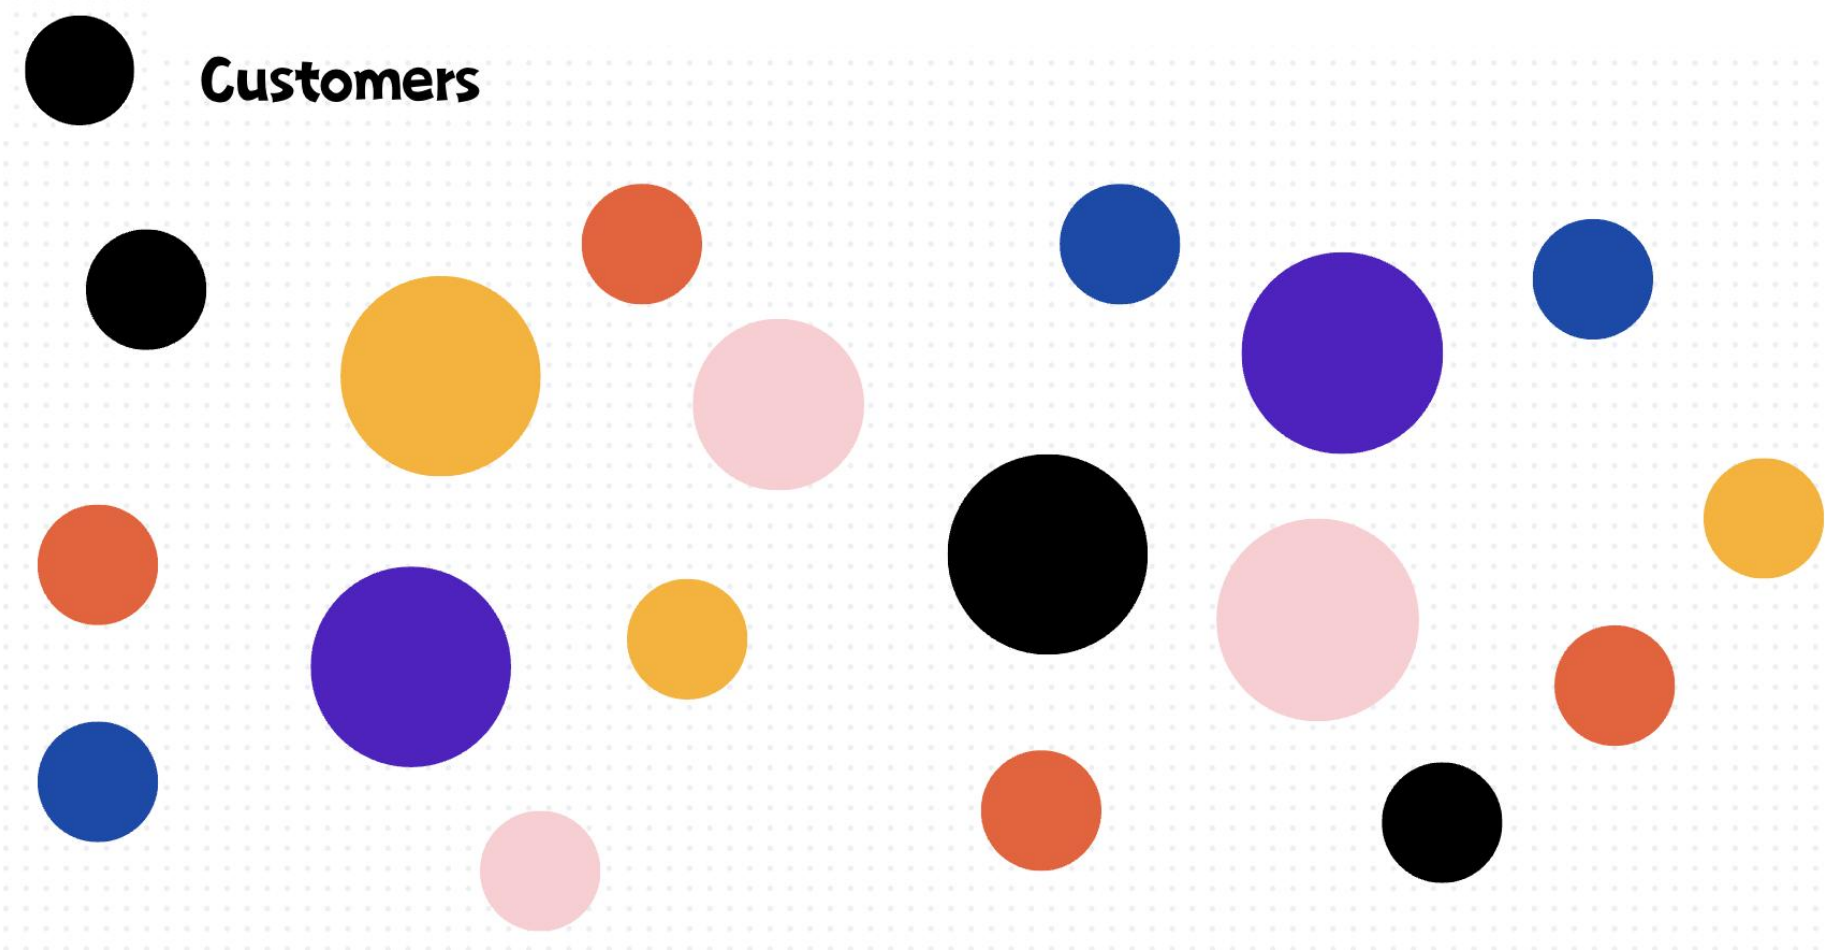

1.2 Customer segmentation

Through data analysis, customers are segmented into different groups, and personalized marketing content is designed for their different needs.

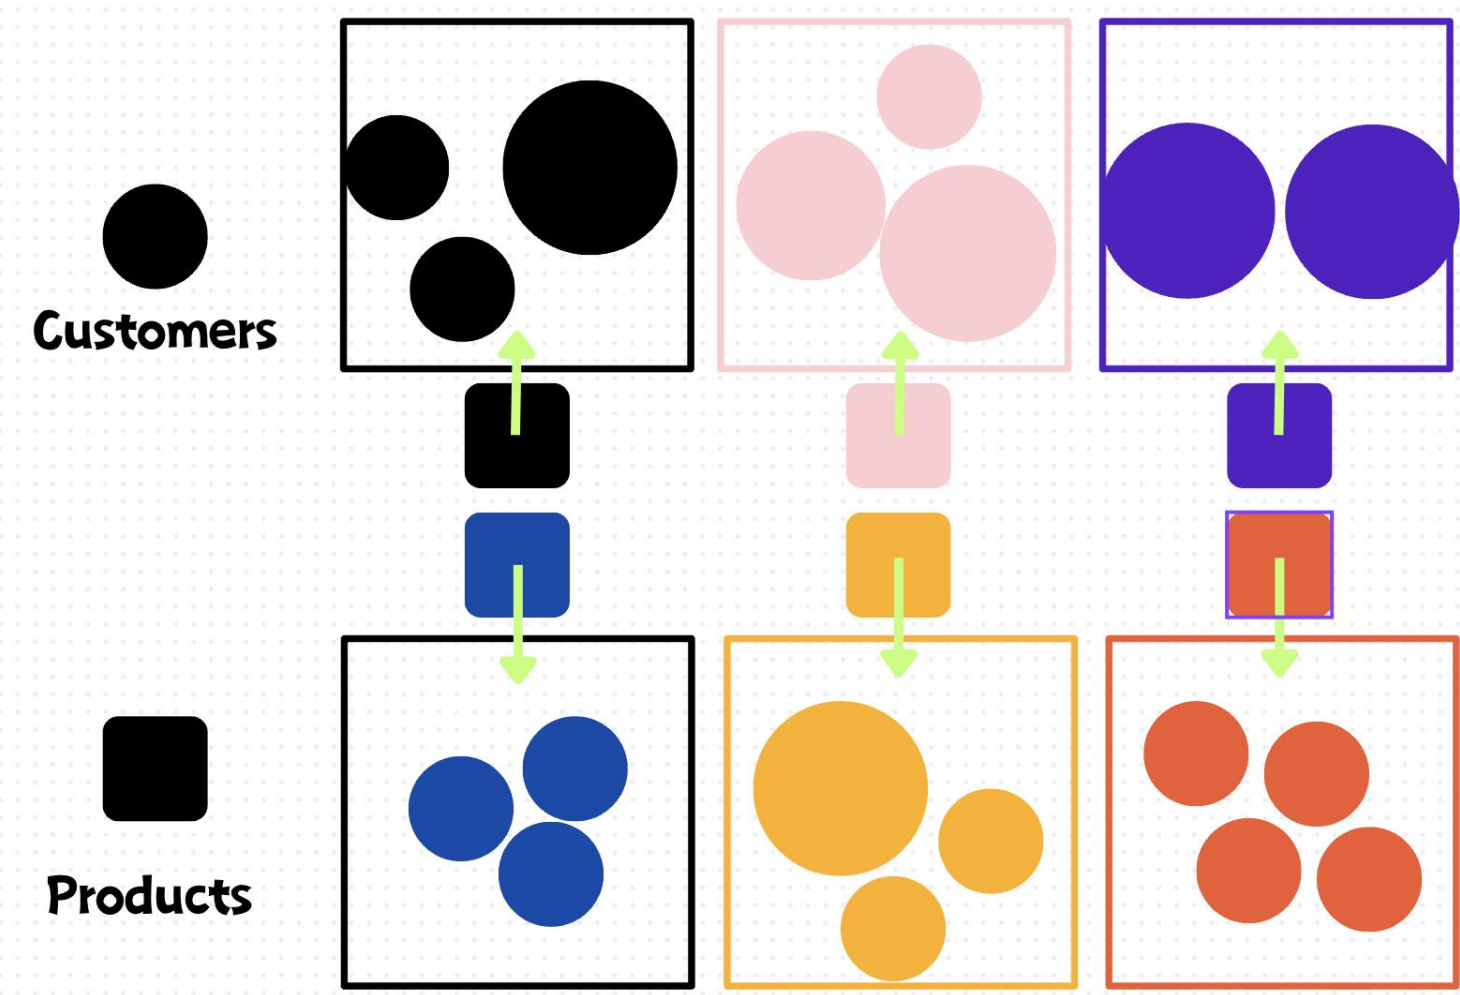

Budget: 20,000 AUS

Expected effect: Using ai to analyze customer needs makes our recommendations more accurate.

Before

After

2. Optimize our ads to make users more likely to search multiple times, and improve the quality of our ads to resonate with more users, thereby building stronger connections with customers and increasing customer loyalty.

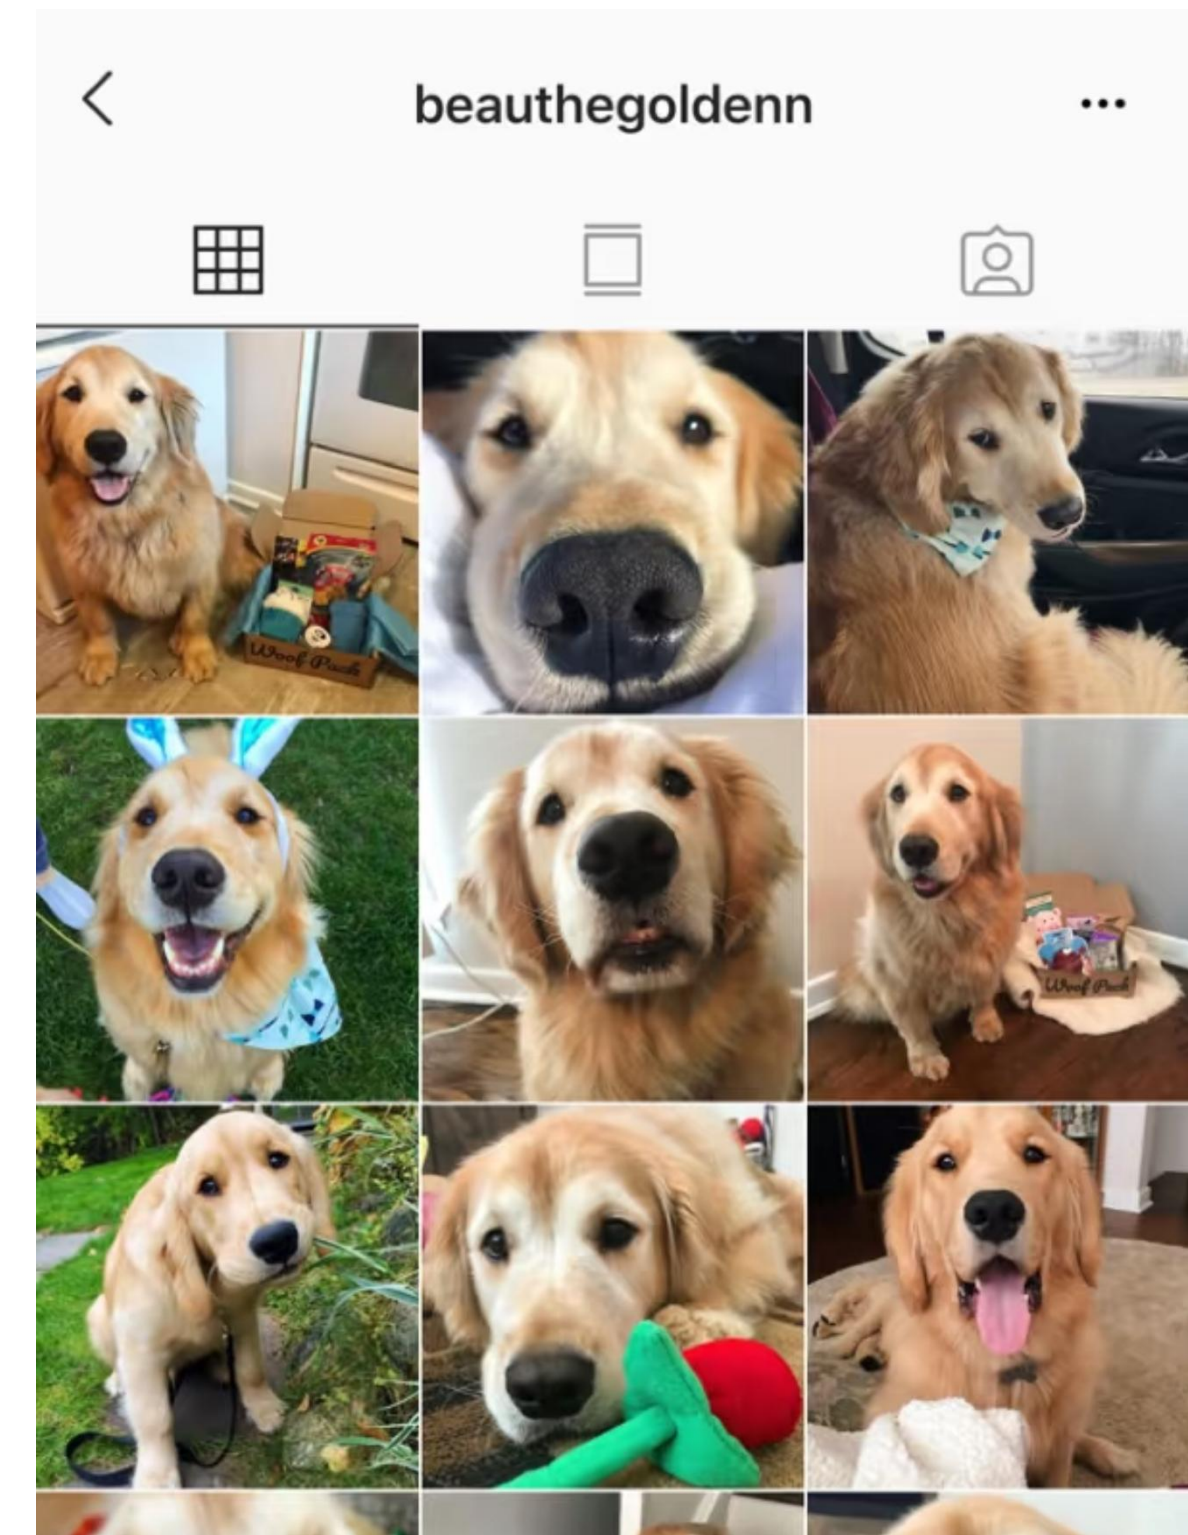

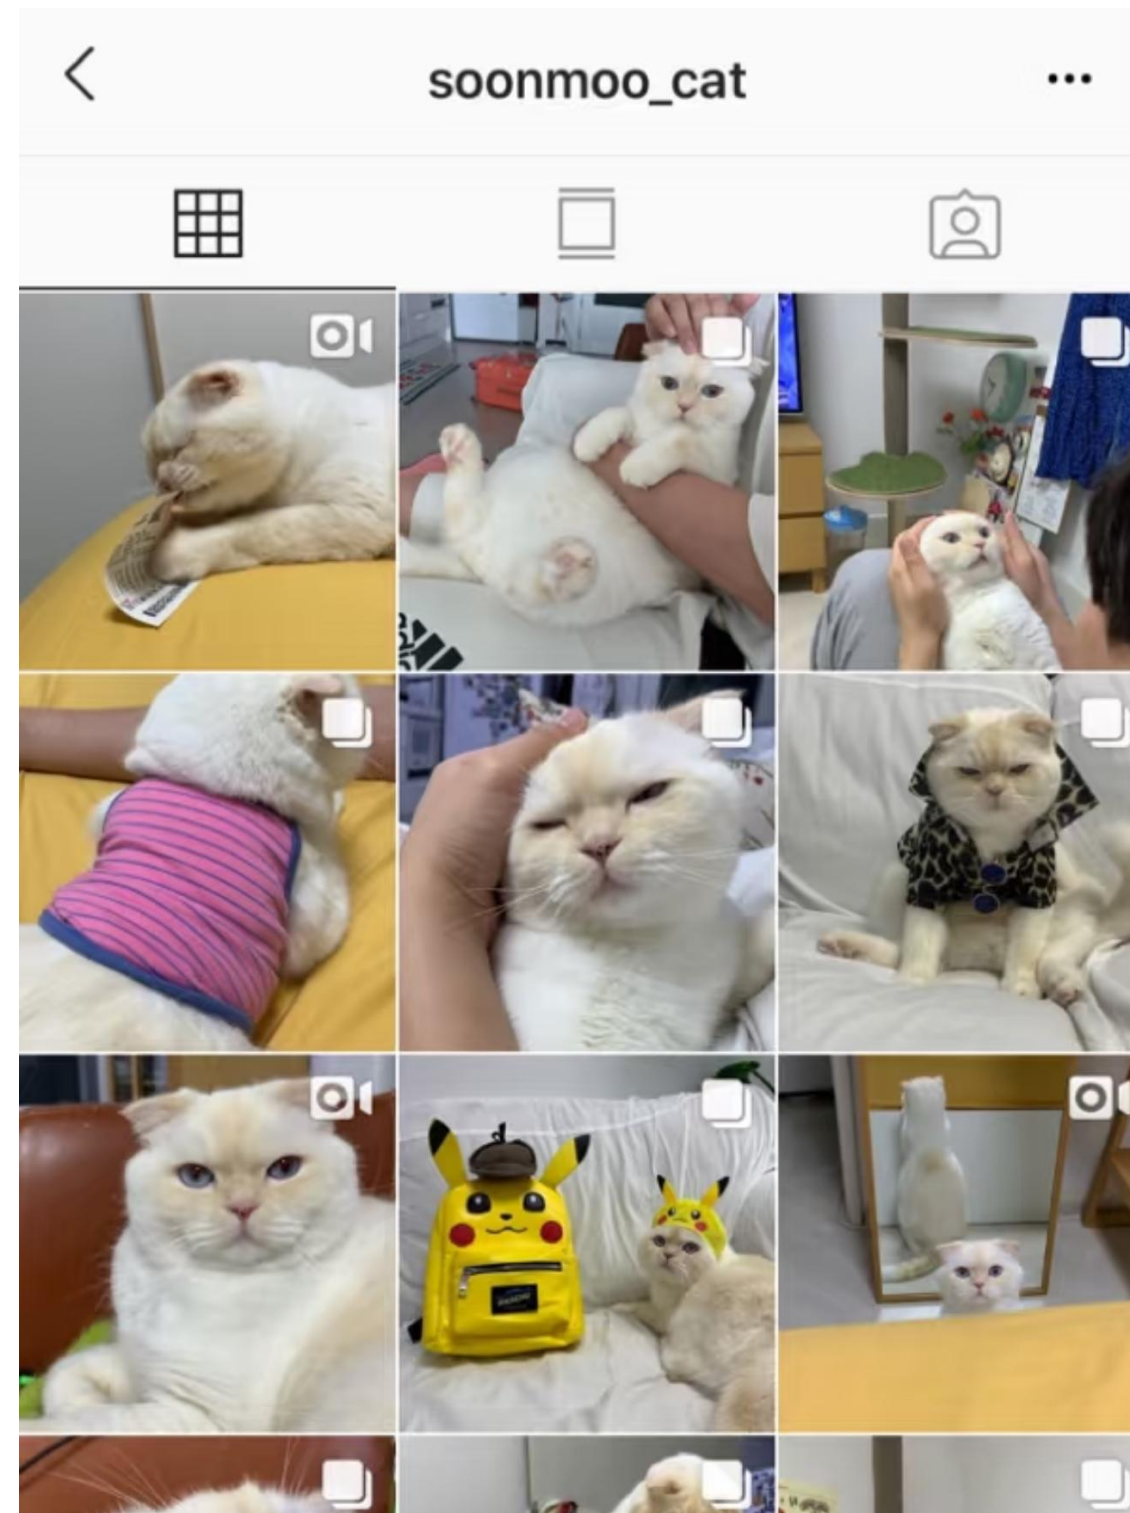

2.1 Cooperation with influencers

It's a good idea to work with influencers who own pets to get them to use our products and post their feelings to their audience, so that people who watch their videos can also learn about our products.

Budget: 100,000 AUS

Expected effect: Attract bloggers' followers and convert searchers into paying users, increase the number of customers by about 10%.

We want bloggers to describe how they feel after using our products and services, not just recommend our brand, because this will not be interesting to the audience, which will not be converted to consumers.

2. Optimize our ads to make users more likely to search multiple times, and improve the quality of our ads to resonate with more users, thereby building stronger connections with customers and increasing customer loyalty.

2.2 Provide our users with a trial of new products

It's a good idea to Offering customers a trial of a new product and encouraging them to post their feelings on social media is not only our publicity, but also our ability to connect with customers and increase customer loyalty.

Budget: 200,0000 AUS

Expected effect: Maintain existing customers and continue to increase new customers by 10%.
